WHO ARE THE MEN?

WITH THE GREATEST

In The Times-Dispatch of last Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday were published the "cut-up" pictures of two prominent men of Richmond. The pictures were cut into small pieces and mixed together and about an equal number of the pieces were published on each of the three days. Some of the capital letters which spell their names are published to-day and the rest of them will be published to-morrow, scattered among the Want Ads. in brackets, thus: (M.) Cut out the pieces, paste them together so as to form the portraits of the two cut out the pieces, paste them together so as to form the portraits of the two gentlemen; look for the capital letters, which spell their names, cut out the Ads. containing the letters and paste them in proper order to spell the two names and then send the complete puzzle to The Times-Dispatch. There will be five prizes. The first will be five dollars in gold; the second a pretty manticlock; the third two tickets to the Academy next week, and the fourth and inth two tickets each to the Bijou next week.

All replies must be in The Times-Dispatch office by next Saturday at noon, and the winners will be announced in The Times-Dispatch next Sunday.

All correct answers will be placed in a basket and the winners drawn out by a disinterested person, blindfolded. The first answer drawn out will get the first prize, thus, in regular order until the five prizes be decided. In The Times-Dispatch of last Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday were pub-
